

I support the right to receive satellite broadcast of important weather, safety, and traffic information free of dictates from Broadcast Associations. With the price of fuel, time saved because of traffic information is something everyone should appreciate. Weather information saves lives throughout this country. Listeners have a right to this important life saving information. No, we can not count on local broadcasters broadcasting weather information if commercials are more important.